

BRAINSTORMING THEMES

Without getting too detailed, think through the “who, where, what, and when,” and see how many ideas you can create. You can copy some of the ideas mentioned on the preceding page to help get the creative ideas flowing. You just might come up with the next great idea that many other churches are inspired to use, too!

Who

Where

What

When

Below, list some of your favorite theme ideas from the brainstorming you did on the previous page. Include other ideas that occur to you, or even draw a doodle or two.